

calm

Gracie
Boliard

I would want to be calm because it could help me a lot to be less scared and make stuff less hard for me and to make things easier for me such as school family and home and after school activities to just help me when I am scared or nervous i would need to calm down even when i am stressed about stuff such as homework. Also if I am being calm i could balance my life from my school work.